

Transportation options from SeaTac airport to Seattle University

To get to SU from the airport, you have several options:

- Take the Link light rail to the Pioneer Square station stop, walk 1 block to James St & 3rd Ave and take the Metro bus, routes 3 or 4, to campus (E Jefferson St & Broadway or E Jefferson St & 14th St).
- Take the Link light rail to International District/Chinatown station and then take the Seattle Streetcar at 5th and Jackson, eastbound, getting off at Broadway & Marion stop for Seattle University.
- Take the Link light rail to Capitol Hill station, then take the Seattle Streetcar at Broadway & Denny, westbound, getting off at the Broadway & Marion stop. If you choose to walk, the Capitol Hill Station is a 10-minute walk (0.5 miles) to the Silver Cloud Hotel on Broadway.
- Take a vehicle for hire (Taxi fare is approximately $55 one way from the airport).
- Uber/Lyft is probably the most common choice of transportation for most folks at SU. The one-way fare can be anywhere between $24 and $35, depending on the time of the day. If you're requesting uberX or uberPOOL, follow the parking garage signs and meet your driver at the Rideshare/TNC pickup zone on the 3rd floor of the Sea-Tac Airport parking garage.
